

ASEAN – INDIA EXPO and FORUM
Tentative Schedule for Eastern Economic Corridor (EEC) visit

Friday, 4th August 2017	07.15 a.m.	Leave the hotel (Marriot Marquis Hotel, Sukhumvit 22)
	09.45 a.m.	Visit Map Ta Phut Industrial Estate (Rayong)
	12.00 p.m.	Lunch
	13.00 p.m.	Visit Map Ta Phut Industrial Port (Rayong)
	14.45 p.m.	Visit Aditya Birla Chemicals (Thailand) Ltd. (Map Ta Phut Plant)
	16.00 p.m.	Transfer back to Bangkok
	19.00 p.m.	Arrive the hotel

Map Ta Phut Industrial Estate

Map Ta Phut Industrial Estate was developed in 1989 by the state enterprise, Industrial Estate Authority of Thailand, Ministry of industry, to develop the Thai industries in harmony with environment and society. Map Ta Phut Industrial Estate was established as the raw material production bases for consumption in the country in order to substitute import goods, which is harmonious with the social circumstance and Thai culture with 5 equilibriums are economy equitability environment education ethics

Map Ta Phut Industrial Port

Map Ta Phut Industrial Port is part of the Eastern Seaboard Development Master Plan under the supervision of I-EA-T. Slated to become the industrial hub of Southeast Asia contributing to all industrial operations, the Map Ta Phut Industrial Port is designed to accommodate a large number of ships including heavy vessels carrying industrial factory equipment, bulk and liquid cargoes. With all these attributes, the Map Ta Phut Industrial Port is regarded as a major infrastructure helping to enhance the nation's competitive edge in terms of production and export capacity.

Aditya Birla Chemicals (Thailand) Ltd.

Aditya Birla Chemicals (Thailand) (ABCTL), part of the Aditya Birla Group, is an Indian company under BOI promotion. The company have invested in Thailand more than 5,600 Million THB., engaged in the production of five major product categories, namely, chlor-alkali, epichlorohydrin, epoxy resins, phosphates and sulphites.